Innisfree-Minburn 4-H Beef Club

Peyton Hess-Club Reporter

We held our monthly club meeting on December 14 in Innisfree where we welcomed another new member, bringing our total member count to 24! We discussed our plans for a club Christmas party and for our upcoming public speaking competition. We also held a halter making workshop at the December meeting, where members learned how to make halters and tie them off properly. Our club discussed where we would like to go for our club field trip this year, but have not yet booked a location or date. Members have been working hard on their project animals, getting them halter broke, and show-ring ready. Our club participated in Innisfree's Holiday in the Hallway, where each member provided baking to sell at the event.

On December 28, we went to Border Escapes for our club Christmas party. Everyone had a great time! The older members were the only successful group to get out of their room in time, even beating the adults!

Our ice melt fundraiser is going very well! If you still need ice melt, please reach out to any member or leader.

The next meeting is January 9th at Minburn Curling Rink.

Remaining safe is a joint responsibility.
When you see a snow plow, salt or sand truck on the road, please proceed with caution. Our eyes are on the road, the snow, potential obstacles and dangers – we ask you to be patient.

Give time and space to the vehicles at work for you!
